ABOUT THE FORUM

For 28 years, Realcomm has convened the leaders shaping technology strategy across commercial real estate. The Real Estate Investment Management Forum extends that legacy to the investment side of the industry, bringing together the executives responsible for portfolio performance and the technology leaders responsible for the platforms behind it.

In one focused afternoon, senior decision-makers will examine how AI, data strategy, and digital transformation are redefining investment management, followed by a hosted reception designed for high-value peer networking.
